

Sunflower Duet

Design by Marianne Crivellaro, Text by Darlene Welch

Sunflowers, which are native to the Americas, are aptly named for their ability to follow the sun throughout the course of the day. These sunflowers, captured so beautifully in stained glass by Marianne Crivellaro, are from her book Fabulous Florals, one of the twelve pattern books included in The Ultimate Pattern Book, Volume 2. Other books in this collection, which features a total of 300-plus full-size patterns suitable for beginning and intermediate artists, include Paws, From the Heart, Florals All Around, Adorable Angels, Deck the Halls, Luck of the Irish, and five others.

The color selections shown here are great for depicting sunflowers, but different colors could suggest some lovely poinsettias for Christmas-time. Just select a vibrant red for the petals, a sunny yellow for the centers, and a deep green for the leaves, and you'll have the perfect accent for your upcoming holiday decor. GPO
